

High Holiday Seating Announcement

We would like to ensure that there will be a healthy environment during this year's High Holiday services. Therefore we ask that those who come to services adhere to the following guidelines:

- Anyone on premises will be required to wear a mask at all times. This will be enforced. For the sake of everyone's health concerns, no one should remove their masks for any conversation / announcements during Tefilah.
- Everyone is asked to keep six feet away from each other. This will be enforced.

In addition, we will be taking the following measures:

- We will be opening the back wall of the Shul, to ensure that anyone who would like to ensure social distancing even more can elect to sit wherever they desire in what is currently the social hall.
- We are only assigning seats on either side of a row of seats. Only family members may sit in the middle of a row.
- The rows of seats will be spaced further away from each other, to ensure adequate space between people.

We hope to see you all there! With our best wishes for a Kesivah VeChasimah Tovah—a happy, healthy & successful new year.

Sarah & Sol Sacks Memorial Elul Program

We thank the Sacks Family for sponsoring this year's Elul Program in memory of their parents. Because of the current COVID-19 situation, we have a modified program. Instead of a live event, two video presentations were produced. The first was sent out this week and is suitable for Rosh Hashanah. It is entitled: "A Sweet Year" and can be accessed by clicking here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7U77wIOIECg&t=35s>. Next week, we will be sending the second video, for Yom Kippur, entitled: "A New Look". May the Memory of Sarah & Sol Sacks serve as a source of blessing & inspiration.
