High Holidays Recap

How nice it was to enjoy the Holiday Season despite COVID-19. Although there were no kiddushim there was a genuine holiday spirit felt by all. A big Yasher Ko'ach to the Baalei Tefillah, Rabbi Gluck & Rabbi Rutstein, for inspiring us during the Yomim Noraim. Thank you to Dr. Cotlar for making the very successful Yom Kippur Appeal, bringing in much needed revenue for the Shul. The Shul Sukkah was well used by members and people passing through. It was even used for sleeping, as the weather was beautiful. We thank Jeremy Hull for his efforts with the Sukkah. A tremendous thank you to Rabbi Rutstein for leading the lively Hakafos on Simchas Torah. In addition, thank you to Bob Green for his continuous efforts to beautify the landscaping of the Shul. The Rabbi's sermons over the season were stimulating & creative. Simchas Torah concluded on a very high note with his original presentation on the temporary and permanent aspects of the Sukkah, at the Neilas HaChag. We hope that Hashem heard our prayers and that this year will be a good & sweet year in which the problems of our past are forgotten.
